HIGH SCHOOL BOND ELECTION TUESDAY

Bond Issue for $25,000 for The purchase of New Site and Erection of High School Building.

An election will be held on Tuesday, June 11th in the justice of peace offices in the Riverside Hotel for the purpose of voting on the proposed bond issue of $25,000 for the erection of a new high school building and the purchase of a new site and equipment for the Meadow Lake Union High School District.

An inspection was requested by the board of trustees last March and the report received from the state architect showed that the building required considerable repairing to conform to the present requirements of the state for public buildings and that the fire risk was excessive. The board of trustees after receiving this report secured estimates on repairing the present building, and making necessary additions which they deem necessary. They also had an estimate on an entirely new building, a new site and equipment. The figures secured by the board of trustees show that it would cost $13,525.00 to have the building required to conform to the present building standards and an additional $3,900.00 would be required to build an addition necessary to take care of the present enrollment of students. They estimate that a new modern building could be built for $20,000.00 and a new site purchased and new equipment for $5,000.00, making a total of $25,000.

The voters of the district will have the opportunity to approve or disapprove of this bond issue on Tuesday. In the event the bond issue does not carry the board of trustees will then ask for a vote on a $17,000 bond issue to repair the present building.

Grammar School Bond Election Postponed

The election which was to be held on Friday, June 7th to vote on a bond issue of $22,000 for the Truckee Grammar School District for the erection of a new grammar school building has been postponed until later this month.

Due to a clerical error the notices were not properly prepared and it will be necessary to republish the notices.

The error was made in listing the purposes for which the money was to be used and in showing this as the Truckee Grammar School District instead of the Truckee School District.

In order that there may be no question about the legality of these notices, the board of trustees have been advised by District Attorney Stoll that correct notices must be posted and published.

Egg Prices Advance Steadily on Pacific Coast

SACRAMENTO, June 6.—(UP)—With reserve stocks accumulating more slowly than in recent years, prices of eggs on the Pacific Coast have been advancing steadily, according to a report of the federal state market news service.

In most years prices experienced a sharp break after the Easter demand was passed, but this year, as a result of the absence of heavy supplies, a continued good "into storage" movement and a fair amount of buying for current consumption held the decline at a lower rate.

S. E. GORDON EXPLAINS SCHOOL NEEDS

To the Voters of Meadow Lake Union High School District:

In a report made by Mr. Kromer, principal structural engineer of the State Division of Architecture dated March 11, 1935 on examination of Meadow Lake Union High School Building it was found to be in an unsafe condition.

The conclusion of the report is as follows:

"The hazard from normal vertical loads is not great. The roof is not well framed, but the defects could be readily corrected. The fire risk is excessive. At least alternate paths of egress should be provided from all parts of the building, and the heater room should be properly separated from the rest of the building. Compliance to modern fire safety standard would also require one hour fire resistant construction in all halls and stairways."

The building has very little horizontal force resistance and is definitely unsafe in the event of an earthquake of more than minor intensity. Alterations to provide conformity to modern construction requirements amount virtually to complete rebuilding, and it is doubtful whether any considerable expenditure on the building could be economically justified. Educational requirements are beyond the scope of this report, but any building program should be based on educational as well as construction requirements.

Based on the above report, the Board of Trustees, obtained estimates on cost of repairs of present building, and cost of necessary additional space required, and as a comparison, cost of new building in a more suitable location.

By these estimates repairing the present building to make it safe from all hazards would cost $13,525.00, necessary additions and alterations would cost $3,900.00 making total cost of repairs and additions $17,425.00. Estimate for new modern building $20,000.00, purchase new site in suitable location and provide small amount of new equipment $5,000.00, making a total $25,000.00 for new plan. This $25,000.00 will of course be reduced by salvage of the old building and possible sale of existing property.

On the basis of the above estimates, it appeared to the Board, and approved by the State Division of School House Planning, it was more economical to build a new safe building on a more desirable site. Therefore the Board called for a bond election to be held June 11th, so that the people may decide what they wish to do about the matter.

The present high school building was designed to accommodate 35 students, present average daily attendance is 58. Some of the classes have to be handled one half at a time, with the result, the students only receive one half the instruction they should.

Additions to the present building will not be allowed unless repairs are first made, so with the report of the engineer before us, we cannot use the present building in its hazardous condition, beyond the end of the present school term, meaning that if the bonds for a new high school building are voted down, you will then be asked to vote $17,500 for repairing and extending the existing building on the present site. Should these bonds be voted down, it will be necessary to close the building for further use as a high school until repairs are made, which means that the money would be raised in some manner or do without a school building. Undoubtedly the Board of Equalization on recommendation from the Division of Architecture would grant an increase in our annual budget so that the repairs could be made in three or four years, and this method would make your tax burden excessive.

It is impossible for anyone to say positively just how unsafe the present building is, but it is built of brick with a very poor lime mortar filling, and any number of fire hazards. All the hazards have been reported to us as dangerous by a competent structural engineer from the State Division of Architecture and with such a report before us, the district would be liable in case of an accident to any of

SHEEP ARRIVING FOR SUMMER RANGING

During the past ten days seven bands of sheep have arrived from Sacramento Valley points for summer ranging. Five bands belong to the Mills Estate and two for the Hughes Holmes interests. This sheep range in the vicinity of Mar's Valley, Boca and the Little Truckee.

The ranges are reported to be in better condition this year than for many years.

The children. A damage suit would undoubtedly cost many times the price of a new building, and it is not using good judgment on the part of any one involved in this matter to send our children into a school building that has been pronounced unsafe by the State Division of Architecture.

From discussion going on around town it would appear there is some objection to voting any money for a new high school and that the present building is safe enough, and as to raising the money on the $25,000 bonds, it will increase your taxes about 5 per cent to retire the bonds and pay the interest for the first year and gradually less in following years. It should be remembered that starting with the year 1936 all the utility property is to be taken over on assessment rolls which will result in your taxes being reduced, so actually even with the increase of taxes to cover the bonds, they will be less in the future than they have been heretofore.

I believe that most of the people in this district are capable of clear thinking, and if you seriously think this matter over and then do a little calculating to see what it will cost you, you will go to the polls on June 11th and vote "Yes" on the high school bonds.

Requests Governor To Abolish Courtesy Cards
SACRAMENTO, June 6.—(UP)—Discontinuance of Highway Patrol Chief E. Raymond Cato's practice of issuing gold-plated courtesy cards to his friends was urged in a letter Gov. Frank Merriam received from Kenneth T. Morrison, Son's Ana Justice of peace.

The communication resulted from a traffic offender's waving one of the cards before the justice.

Merriam, declined to comment on the letter, previously had said he had no objection to issuance of courtesy cards so long as they were used merely for identification, but that he was opposed to giving anyone special privileges in connection with highway or other laws.

COMMENTS FROM CALIFORNIA NEWSPAPERS

VETO MESSAGE COMMENT

President Roosevelt's veto message was viewed by California editors generally as a forceful and convincing document, regardless of their stand on the bonus issue.

While some believed certain portions of the message should have been omitted, others were of the opinion it would meet with the favor of a majority of the people.

"The President," said the Orange Daily News, "attacked the Patman bill on the solid ground that its tendency is inflationary and that, if its immediate effects were not actually to produce a skyrocketing of prices, the precedent which it would establish would be an invitation to every minority group seeking governmental benefits to move upon the treasury with the contention that such benefits cost the government nothing. The surrender, Mr. Roosevelt suggested, of the right of the government to determine its own fiscal policies free from pressure of powerful minorities, would signalize loss of confidence in public credit and bring on automatic inflation disastrous to the country in general and economically fatal to those on fixed incomes."

The message, notes the San Francisco News, "was directed over the head of congress to the American people; to those who want the bonus and to those who don't; to those who believe in printing-press inflation and to those who don't. It fairly, sympathetically, and at the same time powerfully met the arguments on those two issues. But what it propounded was a proposition bigger than the bonus bigger than inflation—the proposition that this government of ours shall be one for all the people, under a democracy and not a government by pressure groups."

The president, points out the Visalia Times-Delta, "has used the incident of his veto to point to a growing weakness in democratic government in America, the influencing of government by blocs and factions. We have seen it working in the state government of California. Right now an EPIC group in the legislature is attempting to force through measures to which a majority of the members are opposed by blocking essential legislation which require a two thirds vote for adoption. This is not democracy—it is attempted group dictatorship."

On dipping into the public treasury, the Santa Cruz News believes that "disaster threatens this country if there is to be no letup to this sort of thing. There must be a limit somewhere, not only to the demands of the demands of the veterans but to the demands of every other organized body or bloc—and a limit, moreover, to the demands of the president of the United States himself. Otherwise there will be a depreciated currency and national disaster."

"There will be full agreement," states the Bakersfield Californian, "with the president's finding that the veteran who is ill or disabled and the widows and the orphans of veterans shall have every governmental consideration, but that in this time of stress, governmental legislation and governmental effort must run to all able bodied people alike and not to minorities, not even to the members of a minority as worthy as the organizations whose membership consists of the soldiers of the late war."

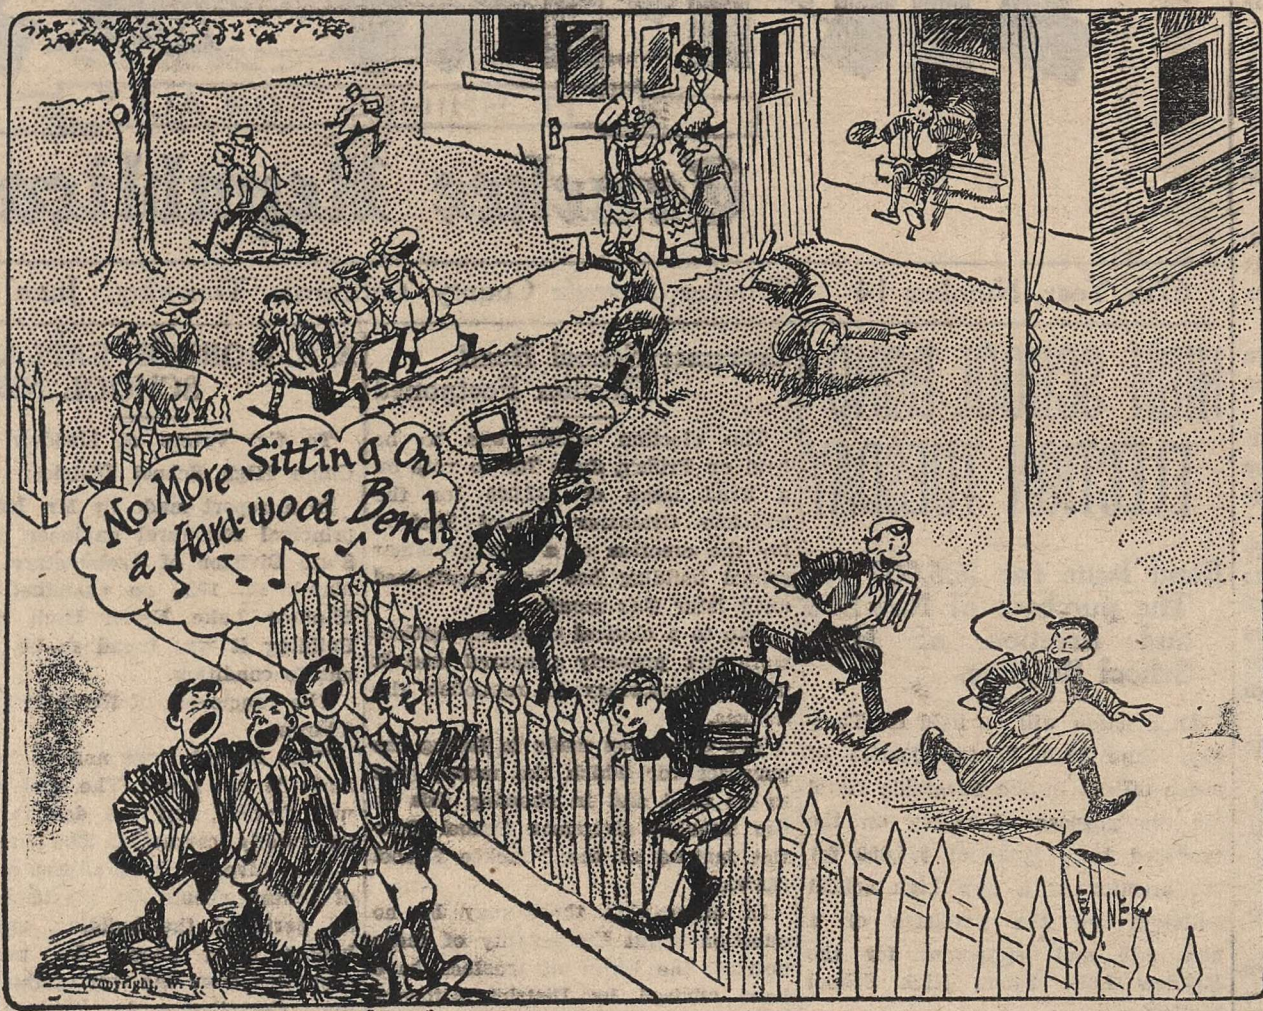

"The President," remarks the Santa Barbara Daily News, "lacked much of the fire and enthusiasm in his veto speech that he has displayed on previous occasions. Doubtless it was an objectionable task, one which he regretted being compelled to perform. For in the past, all of President Roosevelt's speeches have been rays of hope, promises for the future, striking an optimistic note for all American citizens. The task of dashing the hopes of several millions of men, naturally, was distasteful."

ELECTRIC POWER GROWS

Electric power has one of the most remarkable records made by any industry during the depression, and is no less remarkable as recovery proceeds. Power production never fell more than 15 per cent below the 1929 level, while general industrial production fell 45 per cent. With general industry still about 25 per cent below 1929, electric production is just about back to par.

The reason for this showing is found mainly in the great gain made by electric power in the field of household appliances. In 1929 the average domestic consumption of electricity per customer was 484 kilowatt hours a year. By 1933 it had risen to 593 hours, and is now considerably above that figure. The number of customers, too, has grown. This domestic consumption for refrigerators, kitchen ranges, lamps, electric heaters, flatirons, curling irons, toasters, radios, sewing machines and so on, has made up the loss of current for industrial use.

School's Out

With industrial recovery, the new gains tend to be phenomenal. It seems clear that the electric power industry will soon have as great a market as it can take care of with its present facilities. And the continued growth of this market, calling for new power houses, seems assured, even with new federal hydro-electric plants entering the field in some regions. Some recognition of this prospect is found in the recent rise of electric securities on the stock market.

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, June 6.—(UP)—An assembly rebellion which had been threatening almost from the start of the legislative session broke when 28 Epics, democrats, liberal republicans and anti-administration members banded together to delay final passage of the original budget bill calling for expenditures of $352,000,000 to run the state government during the next two years.

Administration friends who had adopted the attitude of: "They make a lot of noise but when it comes to a showdown they'll never muster 27 votes" frankly were surprised at the solidarity of the bloc led by William Moseley Jones, young Epic democrat who with Senator Culbert Olson, Los Angeles Bourbon leader, advised the filibustering group what to do.

Final passage of the budget always was a foregone conclusion. Jones and his followers said they had no objection to the budget itself, but seized the opportunity to hold it up until they could gain recognition on tax and social security measures which would benefit the masses.

Their strategy permitted them to drive their point home, but it was doubtful whether they would accomplish their aims.

It was possible for the administration to slide around the filibuster blockade. Failure of the budget to gain a two-thirds majority vote did not kill the measure. The 52 "aye" votes were enough to approve the appropriation so long as the total amount was not more than five per cent in excess of the 1933-35 expenses.

The bill automatically, therefore, could be sent to the senate where its amount would be increased to the original provisions and returned to the assembly for concurrence. Should this procedure fail, the reduced items could be replaced by separate appropriation bills, and the administration could ignore filibuster demands for recognition of certain tax and relief measures.

Administration sources called the "bloc of 28" obstructionists. Jones insisted they merely were fighting for a worthy cause. Assemblyman Charlie Hunt, little firebrand who shouted "recall" when Governor Merriam vetoed the train limit bill, said he would drop out of the bloc if he thought it was an obstructionist movement.

Not all the filibusterers were Epics or anti-administration men. Many of them were sincere in their desire to force acceptance of measures taxing wealth; of making certain there would be enough revenue before approving appropriations; of trying to win support for unemployment rehabilitation.

One of them, Ernest C. Crowley, blind assemblyman from Suisun, voted against the budget because it did not make proper provision, in his estimation, for enlarging the Napa State Hospital. He said he could not conscientiously vote for the budget unless it provided for relief of serious overcrowded conditions at the institution.

By casting a "no" vote, however, he unconsciously aided in paying the way for a theoretical reduction of $287,561 in the amount of money available to operate the hospital, and $7,820 in the sum proposed for minor improvements.

Of course, no one expected these reductions to stand. They were circulated as propaganda based on factual possibility in an effort to swing some of the "rebels" back into the administration camp.

No one mentioned this automatic reduction idea until after the budget bill had failed to receive a two-thirds majority. And even the following day there were conflicting beliefs on the subject until Attorney General U. S. Webb settled the argument by saying the automatic trimming was provided by the constitution.

Fighting over the budget in the assembly and senate maneuvering on the proposed chain store tax bill tended to delay still further the progress of the legislature.

The senate may be expected to stop any so-called radical bills approved by the assembly, and unless an agreement is reached or the administration gathers all its forces to railroad a program through both houses, the legislature may be here indefinitely.

That possibility caused some attention to be given unfounded rumors that a mysterious person or interest was paying expenses of some assemblymen to prolong the session until certain measures were approved. Assemblyman James F. Brennan, San Francisco, drew heated criticism for mentioning this subject on the floor, but he said he would conduct an independent investigation to determine whether there was any truth to the reports.

To which Charlie Hunt replied: "If any of my friends need money to stay here I shall loan it to them and it's none of your damned business."

Revenue From New Tax Not Available Until 1936

SACRAMENTO, June 6.—(UP)—Adoption of new tax plans by the legislature will not put California on a cash, pay-as-you-go basis during the next two-year period because major revenue from new taxes would not start rolling into the treasury until 1936 and later.

This situation was pointed out by Controller Ray L. Riley and knowledge of it proved a bit discouraging to advocates of Gov. Frank F. Merriam's desire to meet expenses as they arise and "pay cash as we go."

None of the various plans for new taxes, according to Riley, offers any assurance of a steady and immediate flow of revenue to meet demands on the general fund treasury. As a result, the state will continue to pay most of its bills with I. O. U.'s, registered warrants, or will be forced to borrow pending receipts from taxes.

There will be enough cash to handle state educational subventions to counties, the University of California and interest and redemption of state bonds. But salaries of state employees, departmental operations, courts prisons, hospitals and other institutions will be financed through issuance of registered warrants.

"The major portion of revenue measures pending in the legislature are of the type that are delayed in returns for approximately one year," Riley pointed out.

A state income tax, if finally approved, would not send revenue to the state treasury until next year. Similarly, a year would elapse before money would be obtained from an increased inheritance tax, the proposed state tax on automobiles, increased bank and corporation franchise taxes.

New liquor taxes, severance taxes and an ad valorem would produce revenue swiftly, but the legislature has side-stepped severance and ad valorem tax proposals.

Riley does not believe a three per cent sales tax, with food exempted, would produce much new revenue, despite legislators' estimates that $35,000,000 would be gained.

Schools have first claim to available funds, and they, coupled with bond interest and redemption payments, will absorb all the available cash during the next two years.

"Because of this," Riley said, "the state will be traveling in a financial circle until a steady flow of new revenue has been provided to retire all the outstanding warrants and permit us to resume state operations on a cash payment basis."

The treasury is nearly $30,000,000 "in the red" now, and unless new revenue is raised, the indebtedness will be increased to $120,000,000 by the end of the next biennium.

Forestry Officials Prepare for Forest Fires

SACRAMENTO, June 6.—(UP)—The worst fire season in many years is anticipated by state forestry officials who have made preparations for an intensive drive against carelessness and completed plans for extending the score of fire fighting units.

Heavy snowstorms during the winter lessened the danger in high elevations, but abundant rain had the reverse effect in the foothills by causing the rankest growth of grass in more than two decades.

When the grass has dried, the fire hazard will be one of the most serious the state has faced in its recent history, State Forester M. Pratt feared.

Law enforcement agencies have been asked to tighten up on penalties against persons responsible for fires, and the American Legion and civic organizations have promised to cooperate in teaching the public the necessity for guarding against fires.

New fire suppression barracks have been completed or are under construction in locations considered the most hazardous from the point of view of fire danger.

TAHOE REGION NEWS

By Swanee

Of especial interest locally is the recent purchase by L. C. Shank of Carnelian Bay of the Nick Flick property located near his home, which has a beautiful lake frontage of 225 feet. Tentative plans of Mr. Shank include the erection of a first class grocery and delicatessen, to be managed by his son Lloyd C. Shank Jr., on that portion of the land across the highway now occupied by the Flick residence; the building of 10 artistic, four room bungalows luxuriously and modernly equipped; immediate rebuilding of the pier and deepening of the harbor to accommodate any size boat, even the steamer Tahoe, with gas and oil service available, (this accommodation for motor boats at the present time not to be had anywhere on the north end of the lake); and installation of a gas and oil service station for automobiles as well. Due to the slow, late spring Mr. Shank may postpone the building of the cottages until fall, but will proceed with all the other improvements outlined at once. North end residents will appreciate keenly the proximity of this modern new enterprise which not only fulfills a long felt need, but should also assist materially in encouraging further building activity in this section.

K. O. Bohme of Brockway who recently purchased Tahoe Vista resort made a quick turnover by reselling the property on Saturday to a Mr. Murphy of San Francisco, who is reported planning extensive remodeling and improvements in the near future.

As has been the usual thing at Tahoe for a number of years, rain and snow marred Memorial Day, discouraging many who had planned to spend the four day holiday in this region. The week end was beautiful though and a large number of city folk enjoyed their first vacation at resorts and private homes. The lake has been dotted daily with small craft containing zealous fishermen, many whom returned home disappointed. One more fortunate was Charles Swanson of Westlake who hooked a fine 8-pound steel head, 23 inches long, early opening morning with light tackle, despite a heavy snow storm in progress in Sunnyside harbor. On Friday early he landed a 6-pound

German brown and on Sunday morning early a 9 1/2-pound mackinaw, this all seeming a clear case of the early fish catching the worm. Fishing up Blackwood Creek, an open stream this year, has not as yet lived up to expectations, the water being too swift and muddy and too well stocked with natural food at present to lure the elusive big fellows.

Mrs. N. R. Mayfield left for San Francisco on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and daughter of Piedmont arrived at their Lake Forest home on Thursday.

Coming in on Thursday also were the help who will prepare Mrs. Lora Knight's estate for the summer opening.

Inspector Everett McKee and wife of Sacramento were visitors over Sunday, "Mac" planning to return for local summer highway patrol duty next week.

Frank Brown of Berkeley has assumed entire charge of the cocktail counter at Tahoe Inn for the summer.

Major and Mrs. Charles Kendrick of San Francisco visited their Tahoe summer home last week, the family to arrive soon for the season.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Rudkin and family of Tracy visited Tahoe over the week-end occupying their new home in Timberland Tract. Miss Marie Tribbett of Sacramento was their guest while here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Edwards and party of Oakland spent the week-end at Tahoe with friends.

Henry Moline of Davis has been engaged for the summer at Obexer's.

Jack Matthews of San Francisco visited his wife at Tahoe over the week end.

The most elaborate wedding ceremony to take place in the little Tahoe Catholic church, was that on Sunday, of Miss Katherine Bacchi and John Maderos of Folsom. Following ten-thirty Mass, the bride, wearing a white gown and carrying a large cluster of white carnations and fern tied with a wide white bow. Little Anna Rae Oliver, in yellow organdy, was flower girl and diminutive Bobby Bennett was ring bearer. Mrs. Marie Bennett of Sacramento, sister of the groom, groomed in blue organdy, was matron of honor, Angie Sala of Sacramento in yellow, was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Mamie Puliafico of Morgan Hill, in peach organdy, Isabel Maderos of Folsom, sister of the groom, in orchid and Pauline De Benedetto of Sacramento in pink organdy. All wore small matching hats and carried bouquets of flowers in contrast to their long pastel shaded gowns. Ushers included Geno Dogostini of Plymouth, also best man; Tom Puliafico of Sacramento and Carlo Vanni of Tahoe. Father W. Daley of Truckee united them in marriage and Mrs. Carl Bechdel and Mrs. Chas. Swanson rendered several vocal selections. Mrs. Jack Malcolm acting as organist. Showers of rice greeted the newlyweds outside the church. A wedding feast following at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bacchi of Lake Forest. A large table was stacked high with gifts of every description for the popular young couple who sat in the place of honor at the festive board. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. Maderos of Folsom, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. George Bacchi, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mart of Placerville, and the following from Sacramento: Mrs. T. Parino, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bacchi, Mr. and Mrs. J. Licastro, Mrs. W. J. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Guidaro, Miss Antonette Torre, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Irvine, Frank Bacchi, Miss Dolores Gonzales and brother Ambrose, Al Domingo, Jack Guidaro, Mr. and Mrs. N. Bennett from Morgan Hill, Grace Puliafico, Joe and Tom Puliafico, and Misses Victoria and Katherine Arcoraci of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Catalano of Roseville, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sala of Truckee, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Malfa of Susanville, Dominici Catalano of Roseville, Mrs. B. Miller, Mrs. R. A. Tonini, and Mrs. Elva Tonini of Truckee, Paul Miller of Truckee, F. A. Lentz (who also took the bride pictures), Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wagner, Mrs. W. F. Varter and children, Irene Bell (chef), C. W. Vernon, Judge and Mrs. George Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson, and Mrs. D. Vanni, all of Tahoe. The young couple will tour the state by auto for two weeks before returning to make their home in Folsom.

A combination shower and party was given the bride last week at the W. J. Rogers home in Sacramento, where dancing, a mock wedding and refreshments were served to entertain the guests. These included Misses Pauline De Benedetto, Elinor Filetto, Theresa and Rose Bruno, Ethel Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. I. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. N. Bennett, Mesdames Rose DeBenedetto, A. Campanella of San Francisco, Mrs. J. Bruno, A. Baker, Messers. Peter De Benedetto, Jack Tupper, George Filetto, and Bob Bennett.

Harry Johansson returned to Tahoe on Monday morning with his sled and huskies who were glad indeed to breathe again the cooling lake breezes and escape the terrific heat which enveloped Auburn during the two day Gold Rush celebration. Dressed as a northwest mounted policeman, in red flannel shirt and blue trousers, high boots and Stetson, Harry made an extremely favorable impression upon the crowd of 32,000 persons during the parade in which he participated. Representing Tahoe and sponsored by Carl Bechdel of Tahoe Inn and E. J. Hunter of the Log Cabin, whose signs he displayed prominently upon his sled, Harry's attractive costume proved a veritable purgatory to him as the sun beat down mercilessly upon the narrow paved streets. The history and achievements of the dogs were recounted to the crowd over the loud speaker by the announcer. Other Tahoeites who attended were Stella Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mayhew and Miss Florence Vernon.

Tahoe Tavern will open its doors to the public for the summer season on June 28th, the auto dealers of San Francisco to enjoy a three day convention here which will include a banquet, a golf tournament and boat rides. Mr. Roosevelt is expected in this week. The dining room for the 30 or more help opened on the 1st.

Johnnie Perelli, golf "pro" has arrived on the Tavern links as instructor for the summer visitors.

Due to the sudden illness of Chas. Hooper of Reno, President of the Nevada Packing Co., the golf tournament of the Blue Ribbon Beer group scheduled for the week-end on the Tavern links, had to be postponed indefinitely. A large turnout was to have been present over 150 in visitations having been sent out. Here and there a few good catches of trout are reported, Perham Park of San Francisco reported to have caught off Rubicon Point a 14 pound silver which is something of a record, this particular brand being conspicuous in the lake by their absence, and Ernie Ponin of "Idlewild" a 9 pound mackinaw. Bill Saunders, Bud Shurtliffe and Robert Saylor of San Francisco enjoyed a profitable fishing trip over the week end at Tahoe. Today the writer tracked down with a vengeance, an erroneous report that Jimmie Mandeville of Tahoe had caught in the lake a 94 pound trout. Even Truckee had heard the tale, and like Tahoeites, refused to believe it without the evidence. Kodak and not book in hand I rushed down to Kaiser's where Jimmie is employed, before the sun could set, to get the tale and pictures of this reported prehistoric creature, only to learn that Jimmie had had fish for dinner alright, but it had only been a 4-pound trout, minus the other 90 pounds. Where the story which had gained considerable publicity, originated is a mystery, but it proved only another of those exaggerated fish stories men folks are prone to indulge in about this time every year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips of Sandy Beach Camp near Brockway, are rushing their grocery and sandwich shop to completion in time to open for the summer season. They will also serve beer and ice cold drinks from the soda fountain. Four cottages with hot and cold showers will also be available.

Mr. and Mrs. William Oliver of Lake Forest this week announce the marriage of their son, Tyler, to Miss Irene Jo Turner, former school teacher, graduate of San Jose Teacher's college and member of Kappa Delta Pi and Sigma Tau. The wedding took place June 5th in Sparks, Nevada, at the home of friends, only relatives being present. The bridegroom, who is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tyler, will occupy a cottage in Lake Forest with his bride for the summer.

James Sweeney of Plam Springs will operate a first class barber shop at Tahoe Inn during the summer season.

Chambers Lodge has been open for the summer nearly two weeks now, a large number of persons having made early reservations. Recent distinguished guests included Commander and Mrs. H. M. Wiley of San Francisco.

Crist and Droste are building a fine 8-room home for Warren Sanford of Oakland in the Tahoe Park Tract. To be erected soon in the same division is the new residence of Dr. Herbert Stolz of Berkeley, and several houses for A. H. Swallow of Los Angeles.

R. L. Joyner, arch enemy of the saletax evader, bootlegger, and other such evils, is keeping a sharp eye on local offenders, several arrests having been made already. He is spending the summer here with his family and is making the boys toe the mark rigidly.

Mildred Mawdsley is spending a week in San Francisco with relatives.

Clair McDonald Jones is again occupying her home Hillside at Homewood for the summer.

A profusion of snow plants abound at Tahoe this spring, while manzanita, sun flower and bridal wreath dot the hillsides and meadow. Many of the spring flowers, like the season, are slow getting started. Tulips at Westlake are at their height, a gorgeous riot of color.

The "Crags", a strip of virgin meadow and woodland stretching 1,800 feet along the curved shores of Sunnyside Bay, is now for sale. The level foreground sweeps gently undulating knolls, rocky, wooded bluffs of the mountains from which this section appropriately derives its name, serving also as a shelter from winds and storms. No more secluded or select location could be desired by even the most discerning home builder, the sun rising at the front door and setting at the back one.

Ben Callender is busy remodeling The Hut, a portion of which will be opened for business probably next week, the grand opening to be deferred until the building is completed.

Mrs. Fred Mantel left on Monday for a week's visit with her sister Mrs. P. M. Palms of Marysville. Mantel's English Village has been artistically remodeled, a new wing having been added and a large place built. Thirty-four persons can be served at one time, while dancing and a bar provide added entertainment.

Mrs. Hazel Davenport of Piedmont is the houseguest of the Arthur Criss's at Tahoe Pines.

Mrs. Hulda Nielsen was tendered a farewell dinner party on Thursday night at the A. M. Henry home. She left on Friday morning for New York where she will sail for Sweden to remain indefinitely. Bridge was enjoyed during the evening and supper was served at midnight. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henry, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. P. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Worden, Bliss Hinkle and Alma Pierson. A feature of the party was the reading of a poem written by Dr. Pedersen and dedicated to the departing guest.

Cards received from the traveler indicates she was in Chicago on Sunday and reached New York on Tuesday. Mrs. J. H. Broach of Reno was employed by Mrs. Neilsen before her departure, as housekeeper for her husband during her protracted absence.

Mrs. Laura Westphal and son A. R. Westphal, and Clifford Smith arrived at Westlake on Tuesday to remain for the summer season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Siller of Sacramento spent Sunday and Monday at Tahoe where they opened up their summer cottage at Pine Crest. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Elkus also of Sacramento.

WHEN LIVES ARE AT STAKE

You need the same fire protection that race drivers demand

KELLY PETILLO, ON MAY 30, WON THE 500-MILE Indianapolis Race on Firestone Tires, breaking the track record and driving the entire distance at a rate of 106.240 miles per hour.

This record is an astounding demonstration of tire efficiency. To go 500 miles in less than five hours on this rough and bumpy 26-year-old brick track demonstrates the strength and blowout protection that Firestone builds into their Gum-Dipped Tires.

AB JENKINS ALSO RECENTLY DEMONSTRATED THE stamina, efficiency, and blowout protection built into Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires. He drove his 5000 pound car over the hot salt beds at Lake Bonneville, Utah, 3000 miles in 23 1/2 hours. This was an average speed of 127.2 miles per hour, and although temperatures were as high as 120°, he had no blowouts or tire trouble of any kind.

These records are made possible by special construction features built into Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires.

Take no chances—protect your life and the lives of others by letting us equip your car with Firestone Tires.

Before you buy new tires ask yourself these three questions

1—"Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?" Answer No. 1—University tests show Firestone Tires stop your car 15% quicker than best tires.

2—"Are they built to give me the greatest blowout protection?" Answer No. 2—Unequaled performance records prove that Gum-Dipping gives the greatest blowout protection known.

3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?" Answer No. 3—Car owners report unequaled mileage records of the longer wear and greater economy of Firestone Tires.

upon a building job which he will start at once. His family will arrive some time this week, from Oakland.

Mrs. Ben Stanley was seriously hurt last week when she fell from a truck in which she was riding with Mr. Boswell of Tahoe City. She struck on her head receiving injuries which required the services of Dr. Pedersen. Her condition is considered serious.

The driver of one of Eugene Re's trucks narrowly escaped death or possible serious injuries on Friday morning, when he ran his heavily loaded vehicle into a tree in order to avoid hitting the stalled car of Mr. Lambert, a resident of Tahoe Park. The latter had run his car out across the highway into the path of oncoming traffic, before it was warmed up into working order. There it sputtered and the engine died. Re's truck loaded with 5 tons of rock, rounded the downhill curve at a smart clip, the driver taking in the situation in a glance. He applied his brakes and then turned off the left side of the road into a group of trees. He received cuts and bruises but escaped more serious injury. The accident happened on the highway near Knox's store. Lambert was uninjured.

The Tahoe Lake orchestra has been honored with an invitation to render several musical numbers, one an overture, at the county elementary rural school exercises in Auburn auditorium at 2:00 p. m. next Saturday. Mrs. Gallinger will probably direct the group as Mr. Fox is away with his orchestra at the opening of the San Diego fair.

HOBART MILLS

Frank Wilson and Jim Fippin went to Webber Lake on Monday and report the road open, but poor in places until within about a mile of the Lake Resort. There is from 6 to 10 feet of snow on the summit of the Hennass Pass Road between Webber Lake and the Jackson crossing. In many places along the canyon where the Meadow Lake Road crosses from Webber Lake, the snow is very deep with every natural depression filled with snow caused by the heavy winds of last winter.

Mr. Merryman the caretaker at Webber Lake expects to open the road to the Webber Lake Club houses, so that the members can drive in by July first. At present he is preparing to ferry a party due to arrive there about the middle of the month from the lake shore.

Several of the campers that usually spend the summer near Cold Stream are already there and are prepared to spend a good long vacation there this year. They report however that the stream is too high for fishing and at the present time Cold Stream itself is almost a young river and rolling with mud during the late afternoons, caused from the melting snows of Mt. Lola. It has been years since the melting snows in this locality has caused such freshets of water in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Murray and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Murray accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry French and Mrs. A. Schwing met Jack Murray in Grass Valley on Sunday morning and accompanied him to the Gold Bank Mine near Forbestown where Jack has been doing some geological work during the past few weeks and spent the day at the mine. The party dressed in true miner's costumes were taken through all the underground workings and spent a pleasant day.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Merryman of Webber Lake passed through town on Friday night with Joe Sanders and spent the night in Truckee, returning to the Lake on Saturday. These little trips out to civilization are a treat to the Merrymans, as they were snowed in at the Lake all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Plumber have arrived here from Reno and Mr. Plumber has resumed work here.

Mr. Gerald Worthley of San Francisco was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Don Fletcher.

Robert Seibold was a weekend visitor at Roseville and Auburn and attended the Gold Rush celebration at Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Erie Martin spent the day in Reno on Wednesday, where they were business visitors.

Mrs. T. K. Oliver and daughter, Nancy and son Tim who spent last week at their home in town, returned to Berkeley on Sunday. Mr. Oliver drove them down and returned home on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fletcher, James Allen and Gerald Worthley of San Francisco attended the reception following the wedding of Miss Katherine Bacchi and John Maderos at Tahoe on Sunday. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at Lake Forest.

Charles Keiser who was a business visitor at San Francisco last week returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. William Caples who spent a week visiting relatives at Elk Grove and Sacramento returned home on Wednesday and was accompanied by Mrs. Caples Sr. and Mrs. Belle Grover and daughter June of Elk Grove. The visitors spent the week-end at the Caples home.

Bill Nay is unable to be at work this week due to getting a foot mashed on Saturday in the lumber yard, where he is employed as a brakeman on one of the gas engines.

Mrs. Oscar Olsen and daughter Mabel will arrive here the last of the week to remain for the summer. Mrs. Leander Anderson is reported as improving from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cotton of Berkeley visited their sons during the week.

Bill Donald visited his home in Berkeley over the week-end returning on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Oliver left for Berkeley on Saturday where they will spend a few days.

Miss Norma Stewart and James McLeod, the two Hobart members of the Truckee High School graduating class attended the Baccalaureate service at the Methodist Church in Truckee on Sunday morning.

Dick and Cub Landrith come up from Reno for the opening day of the fishing season.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Osburn and Mrs. Dollie Garner of Reno were Reno visitors on Tuesday, coming up to visit the sawmill.

Dr. and Mrs. Pedersen of Tahoe Tavern were Hobart visitors on Tuesday.

NEW ECONOMY OF FAMOUS AMERICAN CAR SWEEPS WORLD MARKETS

CHECK SHOWS HIS 1935 DODGE GIVES 20 MILES PER GALLON WITH ORDINARY GAS

In foreign markets, the high cost of petrol (gas) is one of a number of reasons for Dodge increased popularity.

And here in America, too, the amazing economy and value of the 1935 Dodge is scoring new high sales records in all parts of the country. Writing of the remarkable gas and all savings of his 1935 Dodge, R. T. Hall, Ballinger, Texas, says: "It is easily the most outstanding car that I have ever owned from the standpoint of economy and performance, making twenty miles or better from ordinary gasoline."

With its economy you also get new comfort in the "Airglide Ride"—new safety with Dodge all-steel body and perfected dual-cylinder hydraulic brakes. Drive the new Dodge. See for yourself what a rugged yet luxurious automobile you can get for only a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars. Now... $645 and up, f. o. b. factory, Detroit.

SO LONG AS THERE EXISTS IN THIS WORLD THAT WE CALL CIVILIZED, A SYSTEM WHEREBY MEN AND WOMEN, EVEN AFTER THEY HAVE PAID THE PENALTY OF THE LAW AND EXPIATED THEIR OFFENSES IN FULL, ARE HOUNDED AND PERSECUTED WHEREVER THEY GO—THIS STORY WILL NOT HAVE BEEN TOLD IN VAIN.—Victor Hugo

CHAPTER I JEAN VALJEAN

"Jean Valjean, when you come into this Court, you are guilty until you prove yourself innocent—you have failed to do this, and there is nothing for me to do but to pass sentence on you according to the law—"

The matter-of-fact voice of the filled courtroom. The scene is Faverolles, France. The time, 1800. The defendant is a fresh, clean-shaven, good-looking countryman of about twenty-five. He is staring wild-eyed and bewildered at the judge. Jean suddenly realizes that it is his last chance to speak. Words and half-broken sentences bubble to his lips and he beats the bars in front of him in agony.

"I didn't mean to steal—you don't know what it means to be hungry—you don't know what it means to be out of work. I've tried and tried—I've walked twenty miles a day to find work—no work, no bread. I wouldn't do anything wrong if I could help it, everybody knows that. I didn't mean to steal—I was only hungry, I tell you—hungry! Hungry! "With all that I have nothing to do. The law is explicit. Justice must be done. The sentence is five years in the galleys."

"You can't! You can't send me to the galleys for stealing a loaf of bread!"

Gendarmes, without roughness or brutality, but in a matter of fact way, calmly push him away and his voice trails off.

Prisoner No. 2906

"You're 2906, aren't you? Get a move on!"

Jean starts and moves hesitatingly forward. Rough jailers on the prison ship bend his head and thrust it down on a wooden block. A metal collar is gripped around his neck. Not expecting it, he nearly chokes. The two hoops are brought together in the back, a rivet is placed in position and a red-hot scale fillet from the rivet as it is sealed permanently.

The newly appointed head-warder, Javert, is standing at the entrance to the galley watching the prisoners shoring up decks with beams. He is a stolid, heavy, stupid-looking man but has the eye of a fanatic. Recently risen from the ranks, he is a stickler for carrying out the law to the letter. "Overfed bulldog," perhaps, describes him best.

A warning cry rings out.

A beam is about to fall and threatens to crush a man. Jean comes up and with his back lifts the beam with a great effort and holds it. Others lift the man out.

"We'll have to remove his collar, M. Javert; his neck's injured."

Javert shakes his head.

"Sorry. Regulations. Only the doctor can give that order."

"But the doctor's away ashore, sir."

"That's too bad." Looking at the wounded man. "He'll have to wait. Whilst I'm in charge here regulations, good or bad or indifferent, will be carried out—to the letter."

Such a man was M. Javert.

Five years in the galleys saw the final degradation of Jean—hideous, hopeless, practically inhuman when he is finally released. He scarcely hears the monotone voice of the governor.

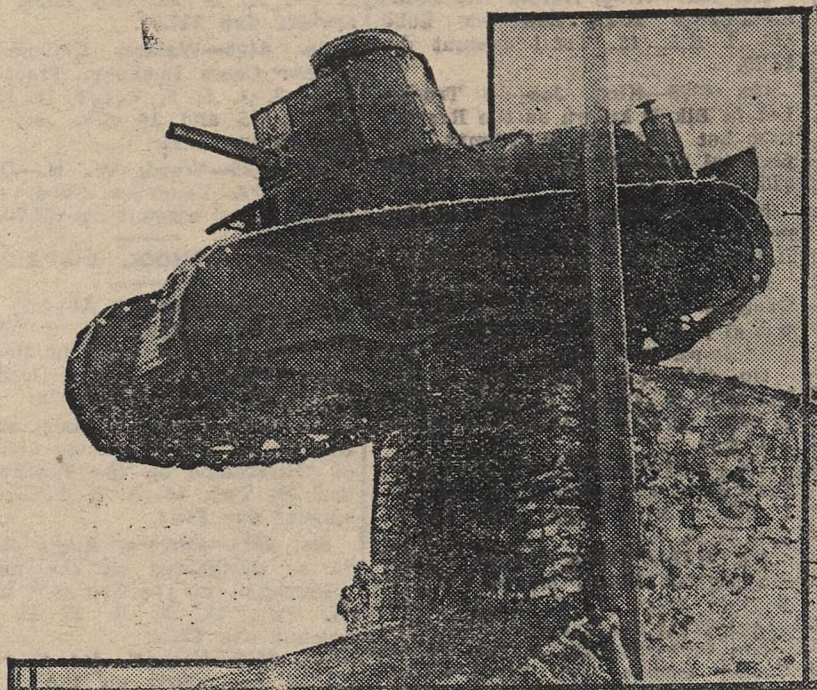

"You'll report to—Pontarlier. You know the regulations: report to police headquarters twice a week for the first year, once a month in the second, once every three months in the third, and thereafter on the first of every year for the next ten years—failure to report is a breach of the law and means immediate arrest. Give him his passport and his money—Next"

"My passport is yellow."

"Oh, that's for your attempt to escape three years ago."

So ended Jean's sentence—now

Italy's New Army Tanks Are Hardy

One of the new model tanks in use by the Italian army is here shown about to take a tumbler off the abutment of a bridge during a race near Rome. It was not damaged by the fall.

Work? There isn't an employer that will take him on.

Shelter?

"I've knocked at every door," he tells an old woman who tries to oust him from his stone bench bed.

"Have you knocked at that one?"

Jean looks in the direction she indicates and moves off to the doorway of Bishop Bienvenu. He is an old man of seventy. His strength lies in his calm, matter of fact way of accepting everything without a shadow of fear.

A quiet "Come in" greets Jean's knock. He stands in the doorway—ragged, unkempt, fierce, aggressive, defiant. To Mme. Magloire, a small, fat yet active servant, and Mlle. Baptiseme, the bishop's charming, fragile sister, he is a terrifying spectacle—the black beard cut-throat of town rumor.

"Yes, good evening. What is it?"

"I was told to come here. Are you an innkeeper? I have money—my savings—109 francs—it should have been 171, but they robbed me. Can I stay for the night?"

The bishop's reply is to instruct Magloire to set another place at the table.

"You're hungry? Come in."

Jean looks at him suspiciously.

Is there a catch in this?

"Stop! I must tell you—I am a convict. My passport is yellow. I'm ordered to go two-hundred miles and report on parole to the police at Pontarlier. I've walked a hundred miles in three days. They've kicked me out of every tavern, every inn—no one will have me—no one. But I can pay for food—for a bed in your stable."

"You're quite welcome. Supper, such as it is, is ready. A bed will be made for you. You're wet, come by the fire."

"It's true. You won't drive me away? You're good people. Mr. Innkeeper, what's your name?"

"Me? I'm a priest."

"A priest. How stupid of me!"

The old look of cunning comes into his eyes. "Then you won't want me to pay you?"

"Pay? No, no, Monsieur, of course not."

The word has an effect on Jean. His aggressive expression softens slightly.

"You call me 'Monsieur.' No one ever calls me that." Then, again aggressive, "You want to know my name? My name is—"

"There's no need for you to tell me your name—I know it."

"Know it?"

The two men look right into each other's eyes.

Quietly, "To me, a priest, you're a brother. You understand that? A brother. Come and warm yourself."

Jean gives him a long look. He is not quite sure of the bishop yet. There may be some catch in it somewhere. The old convict's cunning is still existent.

Quarantine Inspection Urged at Airports

SACRAMENTO, June 6.—(UP)—Construction of airports near the Mexican boundary line in order to provide adequate plant quarantine inspection, was urged in resolutions adopted here at the annual session of the Western Plant Quarantine board.

Federal officials were requested to discontinue approval of airports as entry ports where such airports are not located so that any pest menace may be eliminated before a plane is released free to land at any interior point in the United States.

The western group also requested the National plant board to give consideration to the proposal that geographical boundaries be accepted in lieu of political boundaries, such as state or county lines, in establishing the limits of plant quarantines.
